

Three new volunteers at Garamba

Pavel Hejcl is doing a Masters in Wildlife Management by the Prague University of Life Sciences. He will work for 10 months at the monitoring department and will do research regarding the displacements of elephants.

Pavel relaxing on the terrace of his tent and working with the monitoring team

Kenya Burgos is a telecommunications engineer. Kenya is Spanish and works in the infrastructure department to set-up a project of solar energy in the tourists and rangers camps and to repair the road to Faradje (the only access to the Park). This will be a big challenge!

Kenya and her big challenge! - Road to Faradje

Armando Menéndez has a degree in Physical Activities Sciences. He is a physiotherapist and nurse and will assist in the hospital and help regarding the organization and control of the clinic.

Armando working at the hospital

The Garamba teams gives them a warm welcome and hope they will enjoy their stay at the Park.

January 12th, 2010